Attend the 2026 International Convention in Taipei

The 2026 Rotary International Convention in Taipei, from June 13 to 17, promises to be an unmissable event for all Rotarians.

For five days, you will experience a unique immersion in the energy, diversity and power of the Rotary global network.

Participating means first and foremost broadening your horizons: meeting thousands of members from all continents, sharing innovative ideas, discovering inspiring projects and creating lasting partnerships.

This Convention is also an exceptional training opportunity: high-level conferences, practical workshops, exchanges of experiences and direct access to best practices to develop your club and strengthen your local impact.

You will leave motivated , equipped and connected.

Finally, Taipei offers a fascinating setting that blends modernity, culture, and Asian hospitality.

This is the perfect opportunity to combine commitment, discovery and Rotary friendship.

Join this global moment: your club, your projects and your motivation will be transformed.
